WIFE MURDERER EXECUTED.

ALLIANCE ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA., April 18.—Hosokiah Shaffer, who murdered his wife February 21st, 1878, was hanged in the jail yard at this place yesterday. He was carried to the scaffold in a blanket, loss of blood, owing to his attempt at suicide last Monday, rendering him so weak that he was unable to walk. On the scaffold he was seated in an arm chair during the poisoning of his arms and legs. Shaffer protested his innocence of the crime until within an hour of his execution.

BAVARIAN LYNCHED IN MARYLAND.

POINT OF ROCKS, MD., April 18.—On the arrival of the train from Washington at 7 o'clock last evening, having on board James Carroll, the negro who ravished Captain Thomas' wife, near this place, on Monday last, the train was surrounded by a large body of citizens of this county, a portion of whom entered the train, and despite the energetic efforts of the officer in charge of the prisoner, he was dragged from the car and hung to a tree a few yards from the platform. The parties engaged in the summary punishment of the fiend are among the wealthiest and most respectable farmers of this and the adjoining Montgomery County.

THE NEBRASKA MAN BURNED.

HASTINGS, NEB., April 18.—Ollie and Fisher, two of the five cow boys who murdered Mitchell and Ketchum, were found guilty yesterday in the second degree and sentenced to life imprisonment. The trial of the remaining prisoners will follow in a short time. Evidence of the participation of the entire gang is conclusive. The Sheriff who had the two murdered men in charge was also on trial. It is alleged he sold the men to the gang, knowing they would be lynched.
